 - 11.1.3 Nothing in this Agreement affects Aurizon's rights to dismiss an employee at any time without notice for conduct that justifies summary dismissal. If an employee is dismissed on this basis, the employee will be entitled to be paid for work only up to the time of dismissal.

- 11.2 Termination by the Employee
 - 11.2.1 An employee may resign from employment by giving Aurizon written notice in accordance with subclause 11.4 below.

 - 11.5.1 The absence of an employee from work for a continuous period exceeding seven calendar days without the consent of Aurizon shall be prima facie evidence that the employee has abandoned his/her employment.
 - 11.5.2 Aurizon will make reasonable attempts to contact the employee to determine any reasons for the absence. This contact will include Aurizon writing to the employee at the employee's last known address using registered mail informing the employee that the absence may result in the termination of the employee's employment.

- 11.5.3 If within a further period of five days the employee has not established, to the satisfaction of Aurizon, that the employee has been absent with reasonable cause the employee shall be deemed to have abandoned their employment and Aurizon may accept the abandonment as termination of the employee’s employment.
- 11.5.4 Termination of employment by abandonment in accordance with this subclause shall operate as from the date of the last attendance at work or the last day's absence in respect of which consent was granted whichever is the later.
- 11.6 Upon termination of employment, the employee must return all property belonging to Aurizon, which is held by or under the control of the employee.

12. REDUNDANCY

- 12.1 Redundancy occurs where Aurizon decides that Aurizon no longer wishes the job an employee has been doing to be done by anyone because of changes in the operational requirements of Aurizon’s enterprise.
- 12.2 Employees who have their employment terminated due to redundancy shall be entitled to the following amount of severance pay in respect of a continuous period of service:

Period of Continuous Service	Severance Pay

 - 12.4.2 Aurizon may examine opportunities for voluntary redundancies by calling for expressions of interest. Aurizon shall be under no obligation to offer voluntary redundancy to any employee who expresses interest in such a redundancy. Aurizon will endeavour to offer redundancy to employees who have expressed an interest for redundancy before applying the involuntary redundancy process.
 - 12.4.3 Aurizon may apply involuntary redundancies where it is satisfied that other alternatives have been exhausted or are inappropriate in the particular circumstances. If multiple involuntary redundancies in the same classification and location are proposed employees shall be selected based on Aurizon’s operational requirements.

- 12.5 Unless otherwise agreed, if Aurizon is successful in providing an employee with suitable alternative employment, Aurizon will not be obliged to pay the employee the notice and severance payments prescribed by this clause.
- 12.6 In the event of a transfer of business where
- 12.6.1 the employee is offered a position with the new employer, (regardless of whether the employee accepts such employment); and

 - 12.6.3 the new employer recognises the employee's service with Aurizon; then
 - 12.6.4 the employee shall not be entitled to the notice and severance payments prescribed by this clause.

An employee's ADO may be rostered on any other day by agreement between Aurizon and the employee. 19.11.3 Subject to subclause 19.13 below, nothing in paragraph 19.11.2 above prevents the working of additional hours on any day.

19.11.4 Within a depot Aurizon may roster groups of employees for ADOs on different days as provided for in paragraph 19.11.2 above in order to maintain a staffing presence at the depot.

19.11.5 Where the rostering of an employee for an ADO every four weeks would cause operational difficulties or where there is agreement between Aurizon and the employee, ADOs may accumulate and be taken in a block; provided that no more than five ADOs shall be accumulated. Where five ADOs have accumulated Aurizon shall roster the employee for five ADOs Monday to Friday. Nothing in this paragraph prevents an alternative arrangement for the taking of ADOs being agreed between Aurizon and an affected employee; provided that no more than five ADOs shall be accumulated.

19.12 Regional Depots

An employee temporarily transferred to a regional depot, or otherwise relieving at a regional depot, may be required to work on a day which would otherwise be the employee's ADO. Where this occurs the employee will be rostered for the ADO following the temporary transfer or period of relief.

Where an employee is required to work on a day rostered as an ADO the employee will be paid at the ordinary time rate of pay for all ordinary hours worked on the day and shall be rostered to take the ADO on an alternative Friday or Monday; or such other day as might be agreed between the employee and Aurizon. Employees required to work on a day rostered as an ADO shall where possible be given seven days' notice of such requirement. to work is unreasonable according to the criteria outlined in subclause 20.4, Other Working Arrangements.

19.14 Public Holidays

Where, in the normal course of rostering, an ADO would fall on a day that is a public holiday under this agreement, the ADO shall instead be rostered for the first ordinary working day following the holiday, or such other day as is agreed between Aurizon and the majority of affected employees.

19.15 Termination of Employment

19.15.1 Where an employee's employment terminates during an ADO cycle the employee shall be paid for time worked up to the time of termination. For sake of clarity, the employee shall not be compensated for the loss of an ADO in that cycle.

19.16.3 Personal leave shall not be granted for any ADO.

19.16.4 Where an employee is absent from work without pay for more than five days in any ADO cycle the employee shall not be entitled to an ADO in that cycle.

19.17.3 Part-time employees shall accrue entitlements to annual leave and personal leave in the ratio that their average weekly ordinary hours bear to 38.

19.17.4 A casual employee not required to work on a day because the day is an ADO for the depot, or section of a depot in which the employee is engaged, shall not be paid for that day regardless of the number of hours the employee might have worked in the relevant ADO cycle.

20. OTHER WORKING ARRANGEMENTS

20.1 Notice Required if Unable to Attend Work

20.1.1 If an employee is unable to attend work as required the employee will advise the employee's supervisor, or another authorised person, as soon as practicable.

20.2 Employees are required to provide details of their usual telephone number(s) at which they may be contacted for the purpose of notifying them of changes to their roster or working arrangement or for callouts. Procedures in relation to the notification of changes will be in accordance with any rostering principles in place or individual arrangements made between Aurizon and the employee involved.

- 20.3 Subject to operational requirements, fatigue management principles, prior consent by their supervisor and the arrangement being cost neutral to Aurizon, employees may mutually exchange shifts.
- 20.4 An employee may refuse to work additional hours beyond the ordinary hours or beyond the rostered hours for a shift on a specific occasion due to circumstances where the requirement to work those additional hours would be unreasonable having regard to:
 - 20.4.1 any risk to the employee's health and safety;
 - 20.4.2 the employee's personal circumstances including any family or carer responsibilities;
 - 20.4.3 the needs of the workplace or Aurizon;

- b) make a determination that is binding on the parties.

Note : If the Fair Work Commission arbitrates the dispute, it may also use the powers that are available to it under the Act.

- 46.6 A decision that the Fair Work Commission makes when arbitrating a dispute is a decision for the purpose of Division 3 of Part 5.1 of the Act. Therefore, an appeal may be made against the decision.
- 46.7 While the parties are trying to resolve the dispute using the procedures in this clause:
- 46.7.1 an employee must continue to perform his or her work as he or she would normally unless he or she has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his or her health or safety; and
- 46.7.2 an employee must comply with a direction given by the employer to perform other available work at the same workplace, or at another workplace, unless:
- a) the work is not safe; or
 - b) applicable occupational health and safety legislation would not permit the work to be performed; or
 - c) the work is not appropriate for the employee to perform; or
 - d) there are other reasonable grounds for the employee to refuse to comply with the direction.
- 46.8 The parties to the dispute agree to be bound by a decision made by the Fair Work Commission in accordance with this clause.

Grievances

- 46.9 Where an employee has a grievance which is not a dispute in accordance with subclause 46.1 above, subclauses 46.10 to 46.13 set out procedures to settle the grievance.
- 46.10 An employee who is a party to the grievance may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures in this clause.
- 46.11 In the first instance, the parties to the grievance must try to resolve the grievance at the workplace level, by discussions between the employee or employees and relevant supervisors and/or management.
- 46.12 If discussions at the workplace level do not resolve the grievance, a party to the grievance may refer the matter to the Fair Work Commission.
- 46.13 The Fair Work Commission will attempt to resolve the dispute or grievance as it considers appropriate, including by mediation, conciliation, expressing an opinion or making a recommendation.

General

- 46.14 The parties to a dispute or grievance will endeavour to resolve the issues within a reasonable timeframe.
- 46.15 An employee who wishes to raise a dispute or grievance under this clause must utilise the Resolving Differences Notification Form (Attachment A to this Agreement).

Representation

- 46.16 At any stage in the process to resolve differences the parties to the dispute or grievance (ie an employee who has raised the dispute or grievance and Aurizon) may be represented by another person. Where an employee nominates another employee to be the representative ("nominated employee representative") the provisions of subclauses 46.17 to 46.19 below will apply.

Rights of Nominated Employee Representative

- 46.17 A nominated employee representative will, subject to operational requirements, be permitted during working hours to represent employees in accordance with this Resolving Differences Procedure.
- 46.18 Where a representative requested by the employee cannot be released due to operational requirements the discussions referred to in this clause will not proceed until a representative is available. It is noted that in exceptional circumstances the employee representative may not be available. In such circumstances the employee should nominate an alternative representative so as not to unnecessarily hold up the progression of resolving the dispute or grievance.
- 46.19 A nominated employee representative acting in accordance with this provision is entitled to do so without loss of their normal pay.

PART 8 - MISCELLANEOUS

47. SPECIFIC PROVISIONS FOR FORMER WAGRC EMPLOYEES

- 47.1 The provisions of this clause apply only to employees of Aurizon who have been continuously employed by Aurizon, Australian Railroad Group Employment Pty Ltd and Westrail Freight Employment Pty Ltd from 17 December 2000 and who immediately prior to such employment were employees of the Western Australian Government Railways Commission (WAGRC).
- 47.2 Long Service Leave
- 47.2.1 Employees shall be entitled to long service leave in accordance with clause 33, Long Service Leave, except as follows:
- a) An employee who, before the commencement of this Agreement has elected, in lieu of accruing long service leave, to receive an additional payment of 1.87% of the employee's ordinary rate of pay for all purposes may:
 - i. continue such an arrangement while this Agreement is in force; or,
 - ii. may, at any time, elect to cease receiving the additional payment and commence accruing an entitlement to long service leave.
 - b) Any period for which an employee receives a payment in lieu of the accrual of long service leave shall not be deemed to be service for the purpose of determining the employee's entitlement to long service leave but such period shall not break the employee's continuity of service.
- 47.3 Transfers
- 47.3.1 A former WAGRC employee who is required to permanently transfer away from the employee's appointed location as at December 17 2000, can elect to refuse the transfer and, if no other suitable positions are available with Aurizon in Western Australia, the employee's employment may be terminated pursuant to clause 12, Redundancy.
- 47.3.2 Where an employee is transferred under the circumstances dealt with in subclauses 13.1, Permanent Transfer – Aurizon Initiated, 13.5, Permanent Transfer – Employee Initiated and 13.6 Cross Transfer Between Aurizon Locations, the employee will lose the appointed location protection as provided for in paragraph 47.3.1 above.
- 47.4 Redundancy
- 47.4.1 For the purposes of clause 12, Redundancy, "continuous service" means:
- a) all service with Aurizon and its related entities as described in subclause 47.1 above; and,
 - b) all previous continuous service with the Western Australian public sector less one year's service for each four weeks transfer payment received on termination of employment with WAGRC.
- 47.4.2 To avoid any uncertainty, service with Aurizon and service with the WA public sector shall be treated as separate periods. Only completed years of continuous service with each employer shall be recognised and part years of service with either employer will not be aggregated.
- 47.4.3 The maximum payment in respect of service referred to at paragraph 47.4.1a) above shall be 52 weeks' pay.

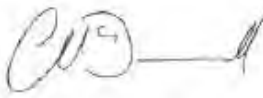

48. PRESERVATION OF REDUNDANCY ENTITLEMENTS FOR CERTAIN EMPLOYEES

- 48.1 Employees who, at the commencement date of this Agreement, are employed by Aurizon and have their employment terminated on the ground of redundancy (including employees referred to at clause 47 above), will be entitled to two weeks' notice or pay in lieu of notice for each completed year of service up to a maximum of 12 weeks. Where the notice entitlement under subclause 11.1, Termination of Employment, exceeds the notice provided under this subclause, the employee will be entitled to the amount of notice, or pay in lieu, prescribed by subclause 11.1.
- 48.2 The maximum severance payment for employees who, at the commencement of this Agreement are employed by Aurizon, and who have prior service with EDI Rail recognised as service with Aurizon for the purpose of calculation of redundancy entitlements, will be the greater of:
- 48.2.1 the amount set at subclause 12.3; or
 - 48.2.2 an amount calculated in accordance with subclause 12.2 for completed years of service up to the first anniversary of the commencement of this Agreement.
